

Current Employment

By Primary Line of Business

Total electricity sector employment in all non-support (i.e., operational) and support occupations, for organizations that responded to the survey, by the primary line of business of each organization. 'Integrated' organizations are large vertically integrated organizations that are engaged in multiple lines of business. Excludes contract workers, seasonal workers, and employment in company lines of business entirely unrelated to the electricity sector.